

Homemade Mixes a Must

Homemade mixes are great recipes for cooks of any age. There are all kinds of mixes you can prepare at home—you'll save yourself time and money! Common types of homemade mixes are biscuit and quick bread mix, cream soup mixes that can be used in casseroles, brownie and cookie mixes, and beverage mixes, such as cocoa and hot spiced tea. These mixes make thoughtful and economical gifts, great "care" packages for those at a distance, and really help a cook keep an organized kitchen. There are a number of cookbooks that feature these "Master Mixes," and recipes are often seen in women's magazines. For copies of some of these handy mix recipes, visit our Kids a Cookin' website or contact your county Extension office.
